

APPENDIX A

Guiding Principles

Proud to work with Rotherham's children • young people • families

The guiding principles of the Early Help Strategy consultation are:

- To build on what's working well
- To embed whole family working (one family, one worker, one plan)
- To address the current inequities in roles, responsibilities and remuneration
- To support integrated locality working and the Thriving Neighbourhoods programme
- To work restoratively with a culture of continuous improvement and excellence
- To deliver value for money and our approved savings
- To seek savings through reducing the management structure
- To ensure there are clear lines of responsibility and clear progression routes
- To invest in workforce development
- To enable flexible working with high quality and affordable delivery points (Places to go and things to do)
