Table 1 – Standard Condition Review – amended conditions are highlighted in red

Licence Conditions	Comment/Action/Recommendation
Housing Act 2004 Prescribed Conditions 1. The licence holder must obtain a valid gas safety certificate on an annual basis, if gas is supplied to the house. This must be provided to the Council as part of the application process and on an annual basis thereafter. A copy must also be provided to the tenant. 2. The licence holder must: a. keep electrical appliances and furniture made available by him in the house in a safe condition and b. supply the authority, on demand, with a declaration by him as to the safety of such appliances and furniture. 3. The licence holder must: a. ensure that a smoke alarm is installed on each storey of the house on which there is a room used wholly or partly as living accommodation, and b. ensure that a carbon monoxide alarm is installed in any room in the house which is used wholly or partly as living accommodation and contains a solid fuel burning combustion appliance; c. (i) keep each such alarm prescribed in 3a & 3b above in proper working order;	Licence Conditions 1-4 are Housing Act mandatory/prescribed conditions.

(ii) supply the authority, on demand, with a declaration by him as to the condition and positioning of any such alarm prescribed in 3a & 3b above.

4. The licence holder must provide each occupier of the house with a written statement of the conditions of the terms on which they occupy the house (tenancy agreement). The licence holder shall provide a copy of the said terms to the authority on demand. The licence holder must abide by the conditions and responsibilities contained in the tenancy agreement and carry out all landlord functions as laid down.

Conditions relating to the property

5. The Licence holder should submit an annual declaration as to the condition in relation to the hazards present in the property and the safety of the property on a copy of the form in Appendix 2 to these conditions, at the same time as the Gas Safety Certificate. The form will also be available on the Council's website.

6. The licence holder must provide prospective tenants with a copy of the Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) prior to the commencement of the tenancy.

7. The licence holder must:
a. ensure that throughout the period of the licence, that the premises are covered by a valid periodic electrical survey inspection report. Such a report should be provided by a suitably trained, experienced and

This needs adjusting to remove the specific requirement to assess under the Housing Health and safety Rating System and to focus on whether an inspection of the property has been made. Requiring an assessment to the same degree at a local authority inspector is impractical and an inspection to state that there are no items of disrepair should be sufficient. The condition should be amended to combine it with condition 16.

The Council and tenants has access to the EPC register and each property will be checked prior to or on application. A section 21 eviction notice is invalid if the landlord cannot prove to a court that they provided the EPC at the take up of the tenancy. It does not require the Council to regulate that aspect with the licence conditions.

The supreme Court judgement (Brown v Hyndburn, 2018) has clarified that discretionary conditions relating to safety are not lawful. As such they are to be removed from future licence conditions and will be disregarded where there are existing licences. These issues are regulated through inspections of the property. Also, the Government have already announced that electrical safety checks will become a mandatory requirement for private rented accommodation but no date has been given for when this will come into effect

- 1. Upon commencement of any tenancy, the tenant should be provided with either an electronic or paper file which includes copies or details of:

number c. An emergency contact number and details of the arrangements in place to deal with repairs and emergencies should they arise. 22. by the licence holder at their business address.

27. The licence holder must provide the tenant with a written receipt for all cash rental payments received. (This does not affect the legal requirement to provide a rent book for rent paid on a weekly basis).

28. Where the rent is paid monthly, the licence holder must provide the tenant with a clear rent statement, on a six monthly basis. This must also be provided at any other time when requested by the tenant.

29. The licence holder must ensure that all new tenancy deposits are protected in a government authorised scheme within 14 days of receiving it from the tenant. The licence holder must also ensure that the tenant is given;

- a. The details of any utilities or other charges included in the rent

32. The licence holder must ensure that any person(s) who assist in the management of the property not detailed in the original licence application must be a 'fit and proper' person to do so as per the definition in the Housing Act 2004 and Appendix 1 of these conditions, and must notify the Council of these changes. Where necessary the Council will require a declaration to be signed by the person assisting in the management of the property stating that they meet the 'fit and proper' person criteria.

33. The licence holder must inform the Council, within 5 working days, if there is a change of managing agent and provide the Council with proof that they are a 'fit and proper person' to do so under the definition under the Housing Act 2004 and Appendix 1 of these conditions.

34. Notifications of changes in accordance with the previous two conditions should be made in writing by the Licence Holder and addressed to (email address to be confirmed).

35. The licence holder must adhere to legal requirements when seeking possession

This should be revised as there is an error in the condition as an email address has not been confirmed. The licence holder can notify the council through various methods of the property from the tenant.

This should be adjusted to ensure licence holders actually live in the United Kingdom whilst being a licence holder.

The words “during periods of occupancy” should be removed, as empty properties are vulnerable to break ins and unauthorised occupancy.

43. The licence holder must ensure that all outbuildings, yards, forecourts and gardens surrounding the house are maintained, in reasonable repair and ensure that the tenant is aware of their responsibility to keep them in a clean, tidy and safe condition and free from infestations.

44. The licence holder must take all reasonable and all practicable steps in keeping external areas and the curtilage of the property free from rubbish and fly tipping deposits at all times. 45. The licence holder must take all reasonable and all practicable steps for preventing and dealing with anti-social behaviour and undertake a thorough process of incremental steps to deal with any complaints, which have been made either directly to them, or via the Local Authority or any Police service, regarding their occupiers. For the purposes of these conditions, anti-social behaviour is taken to comprise behaviour by the occupants of the house and/or their visitors, which causes a nuisance or annoyance to other occupants of the house, to lawful visitors to the house or to persons residing in or lawfully visiting the locality of the house.

46. The licence holder is required to provide an authorised officer of the Local Authority, a Police Officer or Police Community Support Officer, upon request, information regarding the full names and dates of birth of each occupant.

47. The Council will make such information available to tenants and property owners via its website.

48. The licence holder will respond to reference requests within a reasonable timescale and provide an honest and accurate reference relating to existing or past tenants.

49. The licence holder must take steps to terminate the tenancy following advice and recommendation from the Council, should it be found that the property is being used for illegal or immoral use or where there is evidence of persistent and ongoing anti-social behaviour.
