THE CONSTITUTION

INTRODUCTION

Rotherham Borough Council

The Council is a metropolitan borough council, which means that it is responsible for providing all the services that a local authority provides to local people. These services or functions include adult services, children and young people's services, consumer protection, education, electoral registration, environmental health, highways and parking, housing, libraries, museums and art galleries, planning and development control, a variety of licensing and registration functions and refuse collection and disposal.

Rotherham is at the centre of the UK and in the heart of the South Yorkshire regeneration area. The borough spans some 118 square miles linked by a network of 706 miles of roads and 17 miles of motorway. While still a major steel producer, it has widely diversified its industrial base in recent years, with growth in sectors including information technology, high-value engineering, food, healthcare, construction and services.

Although 70 per-cent rural, Rotherham is a thriving centre for business. The Dukeries and the Peak District lie nearby, to the south and southwest, while to the north and northwest are the sweeping moors of West and North Yorkshire. The town of Rotherham itself is the main urban centre, surrounded by a variety of villages and townships, such as Anston, Aston, Dinnington, Kiveton Park, Maltby, Rawmarsh, Swinton, and Wath-upon-Deerne, as well as other smaller suburban and rural communities. Many act to some extent as dormitories for larger conurbations such as Rotherham itself, Sheffield, Barnsley, Doncaster and Worksop.

The children of the borough are educated at 3 nurseries, 99 primary schools, 16 secondary schools and 6 special schools. Recreation is provided at 4 sports and leisure centres, 2 museums, 1 art gallery and 15 libraries.

Over a quarter of a million people living in the borough are served by 63 members of the Council. Some members of the Council also sit on joint authorities established to deal with passenger transport, police and fire and rescue services provided throughout South Yorkshire.

Three Members of Parliament serve the peoples of the borough. Their respective constituencies are Rotherham, Rother Valley and Wentworth and Dearne. The constituency boundary of Wentworth & Dearne extends into the Barnsley MBC area. The MP for this constituency, therefore, also represents electors from two electoral wards of Barnsley MBC but the greater part of the constituency is contained within the Rotherham area.

The Operation of the Council

The Council's Constitution sets out how the Council operates, how decisions are made and the procedures that are followed to ensure that these are efficient, transparent and accountable to local people.

The Constitution comprises 19 articles. The articles set out the basic rules governing the manner in which the Council conducts its business. The Appendices to the Constitution contain more detailed procedures and codes of practice regulating different aspects of the Council's business.

The Council has adopted the "strong" leader with a cabinet form of executive. The executive is responsible for most day-to-day decisions, including major decisions, which are publicised in advance in so far as they can be anticipated. Executive decisions are made in accordance with the Council's overall policies and budget. Any decision that falls outside the budget or policy framework must be referred to the full Council to decide.

The Council's overview and scrutiny committees monitor the work of the executive and enable local people to have a greater say in the Council's business by holding public inquiries into matters of local concern. The Council's Overview and Scrutiny Management Board can "call-in" certain executive decisions that have been made but not yet implemented and question the appropriateness of the decision. The executive can also consult overview and scrutiny select commissions before making a decision or shaping policy.

The Council's Licensing Board and Planning Board are responsible for discharging functions that are not the responsibility of the executive. These functions are regulatory in nature, for example the licensing of operators of hackney carriages and private hire vehicles and the determination of planning applications. Liquor licensing is dealt with by a Licensing Committee comprising members of the Licensing Board.

The Council's complaints panels consider complaints from individual members of the public who are not satisfied with the standard of a Council service. Subject to any legal mechanism for challenging or appealing against a Council decision, a member of the public may complain about the particular decision in so far as it concerns or affects him or her.

The Council's officers give advice, implement decisions and manage the day-to-day delivery of services. The Council's Assistant Director of Legal Services and Strategic Director of Finance and Customer Services have a duty to ensure that the Council acts within the law and manages its resources wisely.

The Council's Standards and Ethics Committee is responsible for ensuring high standards of conduct by councillors and co-opted members and overseeing other probity issues.

The Council is involved in partnership working through the Rotherham Together Partnership, the Children and Young People's Board and other arrangements.
