

Modern Slavery Charter - Action Plan

Appendix 2 - Modern Slavery Charter Action Plan

Action	Detail	Owner	Tracking	Deadline	Progress Note
1	Train its corporate procurement team to understand modern slavery through the Chartered Institute of Procurement and Supply's (CIPS) online course on Ethical Procurement and Supply.	Understanding of staff who will be able to deliver on this charter is important to it's successful implementation. There is already recognised accredited training from the Chartered Institute of Procurement and Supply (CIPS). The training is delivered inline in a series of modules, followed by online examinations. The candidate gains a certificate valid for 12 months in 'Ethical Procurement and Supply' and the cost is relatively low at £38 + VAT for 2018	Karen Middlebrook	Complete	28/02/19	09/10/18 - Report prepared for strategic leadership and discussed with Assistant Chief Executive re wider workforce training. 31/01/2019 – All relevant staff now have access to the online training and 7 out of the 11 members have completed the course and passed the online exam. 01/05/2019 - All relevant officers have now completed the course and passed the exam. Will seek to renew the training on an 3-yearly cycle.
2	Require its contractors to comply fully with the Modern Slavery Act 2015, wherever it applies, with contract termination as a potential sanction for non-compliance.	Section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act is a transparency in supply chains measure that requires businesses who a) carry on a business, or part of a business in the UK; b) supply goods and services; and c) have an annual turnover of £36million or more to produce an annual statement on the steps they are taking to prevent modern slavery in their supply chains and own organisation.	Karen Middlebrook / Legal	Complete	30/06/19	31/01/2019 - For all tenders undertaken above the EU threshold, the Council is mandated to the use the Selection Questionnaire (SQ) set by Central Government. One of the sections within this SQ is compliance with the Modern Slavery Act. For these types of tender, anyone failing to comply with the Act will not be shortlisted. The Council has signed up to TISCreport.org to help track suppliers and their compliance with the Act. The use of this tool has identified some suppliers, where direct engagement is now taking place through the Contract Managers within service areas to put them in a compliant manner. Further work is required by Legal to strengthen the Council's Terms and Conditions in this regard. Processes also require development in relation to contracts that are below threshold or where they are a call off from a framework agreement. 2020 - The Council is now addressing this as contracts expire. New terms and conditions are drafted by Legal Services and entered into by all parties. 2021 - Now complete and in place.
3	Challenge any abnormally low-cost tenders to ensure they do not rely upon the potential contractor practising modern slavery.	Low cost tenders can be a sign of exploitation and should be challenged. Local Authorities can use Regulation 69 of the Public Contracts Regulations 2015 (Abnormally low tenders) which means they can require tenderers to explain the price or costs proposed in the tender.	Karen Middlebrook / Sam Barstow	Complete	31/05/19	31/01/2019 - If the Council receives an abnormally low tender it would challenge this in accordance with Regulation 69 and this is detailed in the Council's tender template documentation for above threshold tenders. Working relationships within the Council have been strengthened with Procurement and Community Safety to try and tie this link. A list of high risk industries has been gathered and an understanding between the 2 teams that where an abnormally low tender is received in any of these industries, dialogue to take place to determine an agreed course of action. Further guidance to be developed and consistently provided. 2022 - In September 2021, Full Council approved new Financial & Procurement Procedure Rules (FPPR's). FPPR's were updated to include specific reference to challenging modern slavery within abnormally low bids. The extent of FPPR 61.6 is:

4	Highlight to its suppliers that contracted workers are free to join a trade union and are not to be treated unfairly for belonging to one.	Article 11 of the Human Rights Act 1998 means everyone has the right to freedom of peaceful assembly and to freedom of association with others, including the right to form and to join trade unions for the protection of their interests. It is also unlawful for an employer to offer a benefit to leave a trade union, treat you unfairly because you are in a trade union, refuse to employ or dismiss your employment for being part of a trade union. Your procurement and contract processes should ensure that suppliers comply. You may wish to engage local trade unions in raising awareness of the freedom to join a trade union and the benefits of doing so. Trade unions in the workplace help bring about change through negotiation and also offer their members advice, support and representation if they are having a problem with their employer.	Karen Middlebrook / Sam Barstow	Complete	31/01/21	31/01/2019 - Work ongoing to streamline standard wording around Safeguarding within the Councils template tender documentation. Consideration to be given to how we include this detail within this section. 2020 - Transparency within supply chains is supported and positively endorsed by Trade Unions and both national and local levels. Work will progress quickly to include a section in the Council's updated tendering document that highlights to its suppliers that contracted workers are free to join a trade union and are not to be treated unfairly for belonging to one. Further discussions will need to take place with legal to understand if Contractual Terms and Conditions require update also. 2021 - Complete.
5	Publicise its whistle-blowing system for staff to blow the whistle on any suspected examples of modern slavery	Councils have whistle-blowing policies, and these can be modified and publicised to ensure that staff know they can report concerns of modern slavery through this mechanism as well.	Karen Middlebrook / Sam Barstow	Complete	01/10/18	13/09/18 -The Whistleblowing policy has been updated to include explicit reference to modern slavery. The Council's whistleblowing and serious misconduct policy is publicised and available on the internet and clear reference is made within the policy to modern slavery.
6	Require its tendered contractors to adopt a whistle-blowing policy which enables their staff to blow the whistle on any suspected examples of modern slavery	In contracts, you can require suppliers to adopt a whistle-blowing policy so there are mechanisms there for staff to raise concerns. Whistleblowers are protected by law and shouldn't be treated unfairly or lose their job because they have raised concerns that are in the public interest.	Karen Middlebrook / Sam Barstow	Complete	30/06/19	31/01/2019 - Work ongoing to streamline standard wording around Safeguarding within the Councils template tender documentation. Consideration to be given to how we include this detail within this section. 2020 - The safeguarding section (8) of the Council's 'Invitation to Tender' document has been updated in respect of the policies that tendering organisations have in place. This includes the requirement for a 'Whistleblowing policy that is accessible to staff and volunteers'. (Section 8.2(i)) 2021 - Complete.
7	Review its contractual spending regularly to identify any potential issues with modern slavery.	Your Council may already have boards or audit that review spending, and modern slavery should be added to one of the issues for them to be aware of. Are you contracting in high-risk sectors such food processing, fishing, agriculture, construction, domestic and care workers and car washes?	Karen Middlebrook / Sam Barstow	Complete	Nov-18	01/06/18 - The Council has signed up to TISCreport.org to help track suppliers and their compliance with the Act. The use of this tool has identified some suppliers, where direct engagement is now taking place through the Contract Managers within service areas to put them in a compliant manner. The Councils Modern Slavery Lead is a member of the Councils Commissioning Board and guidance has been developed for Commissioning Officers or those with relevant responsibilities. 01/11/18 - Non compliant supplier identified - lack of MS statement 01/01/19 - Non compliant list reviewed to ensure current contractor targetted of 17, 8 are current suppliers 29/01/19 - Draft email for non-compliant companies agreed 31/1/19 - sent to relevant contract managers 08/02/19 - Various letters issued to supplier 11/04/19 - Review of compliant supplier. 7 of the 8 have now demonstrated compliance following contact. 27/03/19 - Further chaser to final non-compliant supplier 2022 - Through the adoption of robust procedures, suppliers who had previously been unable to demonstrate compliance with the legislation subsequently met compliance status. It is now a requirement that organisations supplying successful tenders have a published Modern Slavery statement.

8	Highlight for its suppliers any risks identified concerning modern slavery and refer them to the relevant agencies to be addressed.	It's important that suppliers also have aware of what modern slavery is, what the signs are and how they can tackle.	Karen Middlebrook / Sam Barstow	Complete	Jan-19	04/03/19 - The Council has made systematic contact with non-compliant companies as identified through TISC-report. In many cases companies are found to be compliant however publications are not linked or verified so work is ongoing to support suppliers. 10/04/19 - Work around initial compliance is nearing completion. Officers will seek to make contact with companies in order to request they link their business with TISC report to ensure stronger compliance with their own supply chains.
9	Refer for investigation via the National Crime Agency's national referral mechanism any of its contractors identified as a cause for concern regarding modern slavery.	This reiterates the duty for local councils to report concerns using the national referral mechanism, and a public commitment they will do that for their own contractors too.	Sam Barstow	Complete	Sep-18	A system is now in place to support referrals regarding companies of concern.
