The Neglect Strategy 2023-2026 is aligned to legislation Working Together 2018, and Children Act 1989 and 2004, which provide the framework for safeguarding children. The strategy describes the local authority's responsibility to promote inter-agency partnership working to improve the welfare of all children under section 10 of the Children Act 2004.

The Neglect Strategy is owned by the Rotherham Safeguarding Children Partnership, is driven by the Neglect Delivery Group. Updates of the work plan are provided through these governance arrangements.
