(Pg22)</li> </ul>
Decision:	Award Children's Capital of Culture Family Learning Community Grants to twelve organisations recommended by the Family Learning Commissioning Panel.
Reasons for the Decision:	Rotherham Museums, Arts &amp; Heritage Service has been commissioned by the Cultural Partnership Board to deliver a programme of family learning activities as part of its Arts Council England Place Partnership Funding. The family learning programme includes targeted interventions bringing care homes and early years settings together and two rounds of open grants to support grass roots community organisations to deliver family learning programmes locally programme between major events. This decision relates to the second round of application to spend the remaining £14, 098 of the funding. The closed round of family learning grants received 2 applications, of which 2 met the criteria and 2 are recommended for approval. The remaining funding will be used for two community network events and targeted commissions.
Details of alternative options considered and rejected:	Do Nothing – Without the grants programme the Museums, Arts & Heritage service would not be able to deliver a Family Programme to the scale and diversity required by the Arts Council England funding as set out in the original bid proposal. In addition, many of the groups supported would not have the capacity to deliver grass roots activities to the scale and quality proposed in the programmes above.
