

I have so far had more than 400 signatures for the petition. The response has been overwhelming. Since the last accident, I have had numerous requests for the petition and I am still collecting signatures today.

On behalf of my family, I hope that the council understands the seriousness of this matter and give it their utmost attention.

Thank you