

M1 J32 to J35a managed motorway location

- The M1 J32 to J35a is one of a number of schemes to which the managed motorways design specification will be applied
- This scheme aims to increase capacity and improve journey time reliability, supporting economic development in the region
- The project also aims to relieve congestion through improved incident management and driver information