

Appendix 3

PART A - Initial Equality Screening Assessment

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality and diversity.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provide a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality and diversity
- whether or not equality and diversity is being/has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an Equality Analysis (Part B).

Further information is available in the Equality Screening and Analysis Guidance – see page 9.

3. Relevance to equality and diversity

All the Council's strategies/policies, services/functions affect service users, employees or the wider community – borough wide or more local. These will also have a greater/lesser relevance to equality and diversity.

The following questions will help you to identify how relevant your proposals are. When considering these questions think about age, disability, sex, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sexual orientation, civil partnerships and marriage, pregnancy and maternity and other socio-economic groups e.g. parents, single parents and guardians, carers, looked after children, unemployed and people on low incomes, ex-offenders, victims of domestic violence, homeless people etc.

Questions	Yes	No
Could the proposal have implications regarding the accessibility of services to the whole or wider community?	✓
Could the proposal affect service users?	✓
Has there been or is there likely to be an impact on an individual or group with protected characteristics?	✓
Have there been or likely to be any public concerns regarding the proposal?	✓
Could the proposal affect how the Council's services, commissioning or procurement activities are organised, provided, located and by whom?	✓
Could the proposal affect the Council's workforce or employment practices?		✓

If you have answered no to all the questions above, please explain the reason

If you have answered no to all the questions above please complete sections 5 and 6.

If you have answered yes to any of the above please complete section 4.

4. Considering the impact on equality and diversity

If you have not already done so, the impact on equality and diversity should be considered within your proposals before decisions are made.

Considering equality and diversity will help to eliminate unlawful discrimination, harassment and victimisation and take active steps to create a discrimination free society by meeting a group or individual's needs and encouraging participation.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below using the prompts for guidance and complete an Equality Analysis (Part B).

- How have you considered equality and diversity?

These are key developments which will contribute to the wider Housing Delivery Programme. Through these developments we aim to meet the needs of residents, based on data and evidence held about local demographics and trends and engagement with key stakeholders locally. These schemes will provide a range of housing opportunities, including for older people and people with disabilities to find suitable homes.

Council homes are let via the Allocations Policy, for which a full Equalities Assessment has been carried out. This will ensure homes are allocated fairly and that no groups with protected characteristics are disadvantaged.

The Strategic Housing and Development Service contacts tenants who move into new build properties to carry out a follow-up questionnaire or 'new build survey'. This is done to find out more about the people who have moved into recently built Council homes. Equalities and diversity information is analysed and compared against the profile of people on the Council's Housing Register to identify any potential issues i.e. certain protected characteristic groups being under or over-represented in new build properties.

- Key findings

An assessment of the scheme has found that it will enable delivery of homes to meet the needs of a range of people included under the protected characteristic on the Housing Register. The delegated powers being sought as part of the report will allow amendments to the scheme design, where this is necessary to comply with Planning and other statutory consultee requirements, or where site conditions otherwise prescribe a design alteration.

- Actions

- Conduct new build survey and analyse equalities and diversity data (ongoing)
- Review this equalities analysis annually, alongside future annual housing development Cabinet reports.
